ed2go Online Courses

Are you looking for an online training opportunity to benefit your library staff for now and into the future? MCLS has partnered with Cengage's ed2go to offer fundamental online training courses at discounted prices for MCLS members.

We are pleased to offer a selected subset of ed2go's highly interactive courses that you can take entirely over the internet. Both instructor-led and self-paced tutorial formats are available. This set of courses was selected to help library staff develop increased technical skills and knowledge.

All registrants will be provided with a certificate upon completion of the course showing the number of hours earned. Check out the complete list of discounted courses here https://www.ed2go.com/mcls/
